Free Fun Friday at Pilgrim Hall Museum

Pilgrim Hall Museum is pleased to be participating in the 6th annual Free Fun Fridays program sponsored by the Highland Street Foundation. On Friday, July 11, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Pilgrim Hall Museum will be open at no cost to visitors all day long.

It is an excellent opportunity to view the museum's unparalleled collection of Pilgrim possessions as well as the museum's temporary exhibition, "Plymouth Witness to the Civil War." The temporary exhibition focuses on the story of Plymouth Private William Robbins as revealed through his letters and includes numerous rare Civil War artifacts including uniforms.

Free Fun Fridays is a program organized by the Highland Street Foundation that includes 67 museums and cultural venues across Massachusetts. Each Friday this summer, there will be six venues open for free. For the full program schedule and to learn more about Free Fun Fridays, please visit: www.highlandstreet.org.
