Lecture, 6:30 to 7:30 pm

How Pilgrim Women's Work Saved Plymouth Colony

By David Furlow & Lisa Pennington

Sponsored by The Pinehills

Join early Americanists David Furlow and Lisa Pennington for a fresh look at how women may have impacted the survival and success of Plymouth Colony in this lively illustrated presentation. Furlow, editor of the Journal of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society and an expert on Mayflower passenger Isaac Allerton, and Pennington, a trailblazing Texas attorney and advocate for women in the law, are keen investigators of the colonial world of the Pilgrims.

Free and open to the public. Doors open at 6 pm for light refreshments; lecture begins at 6:30 pm. This program is generously sponsored by The Pinehills.

For more information, contact robin.nutter@pilgrimhall.org or call 508-746-1620, ext. 7.
